EDITING A PAPER IN MICHIGAN.

From the Detroit Free Press.

Fifteen or sixteen years ago a man named Harvey started a weekly newspaper at Williamston, Ingham county, called the Herald. The town was small, the times dull, and Harvey was probably the laziest editor who ever had anything to do with a Michigan paper. The citizens encouraged him all they could, and finally the gentleman who had furnished most of the capital dropped into the office one Friday to see Harvey and spur him up a little. It was publication day, but the outside, only half made up, was on the stone, and not a line had been set for the inside. Harvey was in the yard back of the office, digging fishing worms, and was called in.

"See here, Harvey, you are not doing as you should," commenced the gentleman; "here it is Friday, and you haven't even worked the first side of your paper."

"I—see—I—haven't!" slowly replied the editor, looking in the drawer for a fish line.

"Well, when are you going to get the paper out?"

"Some—time—next—week."

"But this is no way to do business, Mr. Harvey. When you came here didn't you agree to issue the paper every Friday?"

"I—presume—I—did," drawled Harvey, "but—I—didn't—know—that—fishing—was—so—good!"

He took his rod and went to the banks of the Cedar, and when he returned the office was packed up in boxes marked "old type," and a note on the door read: "The Herald is dead—too many suckers killed it."

HYPODERMIC USE OF WHISKY.

A man was brought into the wards of surgery (Bellevue Hospital), of which Dr. Figeuro is house surgeon, having a crushed foot and ankle as the result of being traversed by a railroad car wheel. Previous to his admission, the patient had lost a great quantity of blood, and it was feared that he could never be rallied to the amputating point. Among the measures adopted for his restoration were hypodermic injections of whisky, and those proved very efficient, not only for their immediate assistance in obtaining the stimulation of the alcohol, but they seemed to tide the man over a point at which his stomach had become very irritable and rejected whatever was put into it. An ordinary dose administered in this manner is from fifteen to thirty drops. This man's pulse was raised sufficient to warrant amputation of the leg, which was done, after applying Esmarch's apparatus for arresting hemorrhage. The apparatus was particularly adopted to this case, for the reason that it was desirable to retain all the blood possible, for the loss had already been too great. No blood was lost, and but four turns were given to the rubber cord —New York Record.

WHY A CHILD LOVES SUGAR.—The craving of children for sweets is well known to be one of the most imperious of their appetites. It has reference probably to that ceaseless activity which characterizes the age of childhood. It may be that sugar performs in their systems the part enacted by fatty substances in the bodies of adults. As it undergoes oxidation—is burnt up, circulating with the blood—it may be the source of the power which enables them to keep in motion from morning to night. Besides this, it is known that it renders easier and more perfect the digestion of the albuminous food upon which their growth depends. In respect to those offices it is, therefore, nearly essential to their well being And yet how strong, for generations, has been the prejudice against sugar! Under what difficulties, and in the face of what discouragements and protests, have our children obtained the luxury! —Home and School.

A GOOD MEMORY.—While journeying by rail, not long since, I witnessed the following incident: One night after I had scrambled into my sleeping berth, I heard loud and angry voices proceeding from the rear of the car. I tell you this is a sleeping car, and you can't come in without a ticket." "Begorra, I had a ticket." "Where is it?" "I've lost it." "If you really had the misfortune to lose your ticket, perhaps you can remember your berth." There was an interval of silence, Paddy evidently employing his thinking powers. "Och, be jabers!" he exclaimed at length, "I was born on the 26th day of October, 1848."

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Wednesday Evening, Mar. 25.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 20, 1874.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—To you who are enjoying overcoats, coal fires and overshoes, it will be pleasant for me to just mention the fact that we have been having strawberries and cucumbers for several weeks. To say that the peach trees were in blossom a long time since, that the trees are full leaved and the fig trees are filled with fruit, is not a pleasant thought to contemplate when the thermometer stands at zero and the raw, cutting winds of spring are howling over the prairies of Illinois.

New Orleans has just been putting on her spring attire. Last week her face was partially cleaned by a four days' rain and the overflow of the river. The fact is, without about six rains per week New Orleans would be simply intolerable. The drainage is entirely surface, and the accumulation of filth in the streets becomes, in a couple of days, enormous, and under a southern sun a mass of corruption and embryo yellow fever, smallpox and cholera. The cisterns consist of large tanks, in some instances almost as high as the houses; they are built of cypress, pine, or cedar, and contain much more water than an ordinary northern cistern. The people are buried above ground. Long walls, six feet thick, are built, and in these the coffins are deposited, in regular catacomb style. At the end of five or six years coffin, body, bones, have disappeared, and the oven is ready for another body. Of course the wealthier classes have very costly marble and brick vaults, but the general system of burial is the same.

The creoles, or natives, as a class, are not at all friendly towards northern people, and many of them still cherish a hope that at some not distant day the south will be a free and independent nation. The taxes are exceedingly burdensome, and are fairly grinding the life out of all classes. There is a standing amusement among the natives admissable at all times and under all circumstances—that of cursing Ben Butler; the mere mention of his name is enough to raise their ire and cause their passions to rise to a swearing heat. And yet Ben Butler did the best thing any man could do for New Orleans, viz.: cleaned it out thoroughly and systematically. Since his reign here in 1867 there has not been an epidemic of any serious nature. It would be an excellent thing for the health of the people here if he would return and, with the immortal spoons, clean out about a hundred of the cesspools in the city.

Of all the funny things to be found in New Orleans, certainly the funniest is the real old plantation negro, and there are about one hundred thousand of them in the city; they black your boots, run the legislature, steal their share, and run things generally. In the last legislature two-thirds of the members were negroes, and many of them unable to read or write; they could draw their pay regularly and yell "Mr. Speak-a-h" until they could be heard a little less than three miles. The southern negro is a peculiar being; he differs widely from his brother of the north or east. Here he appears in all his fragrance and beauty. The sun is never too hot, and the amount of work required of him is always too large. He is lazy—constitutionally tired. To attend their church services is equal to half a dozen minstrel shows. At one of the churches in the city they have a membership of twelve hundred, and frequently an attendance of nearly two thousand. The singing is the main feature of the service. At a signal the leader of the band—or choir, as we have it—commences the song; he sings one line alone, and then the chorus comes in; and then imagine two thousand sets of ivories displayed at the same time, imagine two thousand swaying bodies, and four thousand time-beating feet, and two thousand voices in exact accord. Theodore Thomas, Pat Gilmore and Adam Imboden are absolutely nowhere. The main thing in singing is to yell just as loud as your lungs and vest will allow, the leader of the band being chosen on account of the loudness of his voice and the size of his lungs. When they strike an old plantation song things fairly get up and dust.

Last Sunday I heard one of their ministers preach a church dedicatory sermon. His sermon was on "The Prodigal Son," and his first statement was, "A man had two sons, one of them was a republican and the other a sinner." His sermon developed the remarkable fact that it was the republican son who went astray, and for whom the old gentleman killed his best calf. W. E. BARNS.

MAROA ITEMS.

MAROA, March 24th, 1874.

The liquor sellers, Waller & Bennet, have left for parts unknown. If the license ticket is carried we suppose they will soon come back. The ladies of this town have not yet moved in the interests of temperance.

The band gave a concert last Thursday evening. The young men have spent much time and money, and deserve credit for the perseverance they have manifested. Several singers assisted the band, and Mr. H. J. Wilson performed on the piano.

Three lady music teachers—Miss Bingham, Miss Getty and Miss Burgess—have successively assisted in teaching the young folks of Maroa to play the piano and organ; and now Mr. H. J. Wilson is to try his luck. He is, perhaps, a better player than some of his lady predecessors, and if he can teach as well as they, he will be welcomed by the musical portion of the community.

Mr. Jason Rogers had a dinner party on Thursday last, consisting of J. Jones, Esq, and wife, Capt. C. F. Emery and wife, H. B. Smith and wife, and Capt. Beatty and wife. If that is the kind of company Jason fancies, he will make a good Governor.

We happened in at Beatty & Persinger's the other day. We knew they were among the best men in town, but we did not know before how extensive their business was.

Last Sabbath Rev. J. A Hood, at the Presbyterian Church, preached a discourse on the death of Miss Addie M. Lyons, daughter of Elder John Lyons. Elder Beckman, of the Christian Church, was present and took part in the services. The congregations of the Christian, M. E and Presbyterian Churches filled up all the sittings of that large house, and a number were obliged to stand.

A deaf and dumb lad came near losing his foot last week by the cars. It gave him a good scare.

Mr. Elliott, who has before taught a writing school in this place, is again teaching that accomplishment.

Miss Lillie Emery had a party last night to celebrate her birth-day. We would have given her a puff if she had given us an invitation.

We hear that Decatur has been having more rain than Maroa, and therefore more mud. The farmers here have had good roads, and have been taking advantage of them to haul corn. CITIZEN.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 24.—The ladies' temperance society renewed their crusading this afternoon. Thirty-seven were out, and visited several saloons and two wholesale houses. At one beer-house they found A. C. Hesing of Chicago behind the bar, who received the ladies on behalf of the proprietor. It is said that his conduct was far from being polite, and at times his language was profane. The ladies then visited the wholesale house of J. A. J. W. Bunn & Co., but not finding the proprietors they went to the wholesale house of Smith & Hay, where they odered up prayers and sang hymns.—Mr. Hay is the Mayor of the city. The ladies thanked him for having kept the saloons closed last Sunday. At the meeting this afternoon it was decided to send out parties of ladies to solicit signatures to the pledge from men not engaged in the liquor business. Up to the present time they have secured about 1,500 pledges, but have not succeeded in closing a single whisky shop. A committee of ladies are expected here to-morrow morning from Chicago, in the interest of the bill to prevent licensing of houses of prostitution. The bill in which they are interested passed the Senate this afternoon. It is proposed to have these ladies stay over and join the crusaders in their campaign to-morrow. A call has been issued for a convention to nominate a law and order city ticket, to-morrow evening. The call is signed by Republicans, Democrats and Liberals. It is understood that there will be an anti-temperance ticket nominated, and the issue will not be on politics, but on the temperance question.

LONDON, March 24.—Another band of journalists went on an excursion over the Midland Railroad Pullman Palace Cars, and the London papers are enthusiastic over the new feature in English railway travel. The Times says everything fits closely and works smoothly; the eye falls everywhere upon mechanical contrivances of that ingenuity which we are accustomed to recognize and describe as American; now that it has crossed the Atlantic Pullman's enterprise will not be limited to England.

Mr. Disraeli consented to receive a deputation of 70 Irish members of Parliament who come to urge the release of Fenian convicts. Dr Butt and Messrs. Martin, Ronague, Sullivan and others will address the premier on the occasion. The members of the deputation are very hopeful of receiving a favorable reply.

The Queen will review the soldiers of the Ashantee expedition at Windsor next Monday.

AURORA, ILL., March 24.—For several days past the Anrora Court of Common Pleas has been engaged in the trial of one Sheehe and wife, on the charge of aiding and abetting their children in thieving, by receiving and secreting the stolen goods. The jury yesterday returned a verdict, sending the old gentleman to Joliet for one and Mrs Sheehe for three years.

The Massachusetts Senatorship.

SPRINGFIELD, March 24.—In the Senate, Mr. Dow introduced a bill to amend the act for refunding the municipal indebtedness.

House bill 730, amending the railroad law so that certified copies of the schedules shall be prima facie evidence, was read a third time and passed.

The Reynolds bill, to amend the registry bill, was read a third time and passed.

The bill to authorize Lawrence county to acquire title to a piece of land, passed

Mr. McGrath's bill to prevent licensing houses of ill-fame was read a third time and passed.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the railroad police bill.

HOUSE.

Mr. Johnson called up Senate bill 528, amending section 20 of the act in relation to conveyances. The bill was read a second time and ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Starr called up Senate bill 552, making sundry appropriations for the Soldiers' Orphans' Home. Same order.

Mr. Mulvane called up Senate bill 110, appropriating the sum of $500 to pay the balance due on the salary of Eli Davis, Prosecuting Attorney of Alton City Court. The bill was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

Mr. Bradwell called up Senate bill 473, revising the law in relation to State contracts. The bill was read a third time and passed—yeas, 112; nays, 2.

The House resumed the consideration of Senate bill 507, amending sections thirty-three and thirty-four of the insurance law. The bill was under consideration at the time of adjournment yesterday afternoon, the pending question being on concurring in the report of the Insurance committee, which was against the bill.

BELLEVILLE, ILL., March 24.—The Centerville horror is still the prevailing topic here, and causes just as much excitement as it did when the news of the tragedy was first received. The mystery which surrounded the affair is now about to be cleared up, the detectives having discovered a clue that will eventually lead to the arrest of the guilty persons. Two knives have been found on the premises where the murder took place, the blood stains on which give ample evidence of the use to which they were put. One of them is a large butcher knife, with an edge as keen as a razor; the other is a medium-sized pocket-knife, and gave signs of having recently been sharpened.—That these are the weapons used by the murderers is beyond question, and the pocket-knife forms an excellent clue to work upon. The knives were both found concealed in the ashes of the stove, and had escaped the general search. Suspicion having fallen upon the brother of the elder Stoltzereide, officers were dispatched to Washington county this morning to see if they were well founded. The brother and his three sons succeeded in convincing the officers that they were entirely innocent of any complicity in the murder, and brought some of the best citizens of Richview to bear witness that they had not been away from home.

Gov. Beuerid,e has sent word that he is unable to offer a reward for the apprehension of the murderers, as no appropriation has been made for such purpose.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The Boston Post this morning says, in regard to the Senatorship: "A rumor is current that several of the leading supporters of Judge Hear were preparing to bring forward the name of ex-Governor Clifford, when it becomes apparent that Hoar cannot receive a majority of the joint convention. Speaker Sanford's name is also spoken of in this connection, and there seems to be a feeling in certain quarters that some one not yet prominently mentioned may be the successful man.

MEMPHIS, March 24.—The officers of the Belle Lee, which arrived from New Orleans this morning, say that the river below Napoleon is higher than ever known. About twenty-five miles of the Chicot and Pine Bluff Railroad have been swept away. No further breaks are reported. The whole country adjacent to Chicot, Ark., and Bolivar, Miss., is under water. No great damage is apprehended.

A special to the Appeal from Helena, Ark., to-day says the towboat Crescent City, from New Orleans for St. Louis, with tow of five freight barges, one fuel barge and trading boat laden with thirteen tons sugar, blew up at half past 8 o'clock this morning, at the foot of Montezuma Island, ten miles below here. Every part of the boat was blown into atoms, and she sank in three minutes. The barges were all consumed by fire. Ten lives were lost.

BOSTON, March 24.—The House and Senate this afternoon respectively took an imformal ballot for United States Senator, to succeed Senator Sumner. The following is the vote in the House: E. R. Hoar, 64; B. R. Curtis, 63; John E. Sanford, 16; Governor Washburne, 2; Henry L. Dawes, 61; Charles F. Adams, 12; N. P. Banks, 5, and the rest scattering.

Senate, first and second ballots: Henry L. Dawes, E. R. Hoar, 10; B. R. Curtis, 10; Charles F. Adams, 2; scattering, 1. Third ballot: H. L. Dawes, 17; Curtis, 10; E. R. Hoar, 8; Adams, 2; absent, 3.

The House after one ballot, resumed its regular business.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 24.—What proved to be a large fire broke out here this moruing, in the Elmira House, on Water street. The flames, aided by the prevailing gale, spread rapidly down both sides of Water street, destroying the Union block and nine other business places. The loss is estimated at $200,000. Fire departments of neighboring cities responded to telegrams for aid.

DUBUQUE, March 24.—The anti-temperance meeting last evening was largely attended by persons interested in the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors. Resolutions were passed pledging the meeting to protect its interests by "opposing all encroachments of the temperance fanatics, whether male or female, and patronize none but friends of the cause." The meeting was considered a failure.

THE JANESVILLE GRAPE

RIPENS AUG. 15TH.

STANDS THE WISCONSIN WINTERS unprotected. Recommended by the Wisconsin State Horticultural Society for general cultivation in 1874. What we have long needed is a good early grape. The Hartford has been the best heretofore, but with bad faults. The Janesville is Hardy, is Productive, is Perfectly—every way as good as the Concord, and ten days earlier than the Hartford. The Janesville and the Concord, we predict, will run side by side, extending the season of that delicious fruit.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Fresh pineapples, at Imboden's.

...Livery business is reviving as the roads are getting better.

...School children are enjoying their week of vacation hugely.

...Go to the post office candy store for your sweetmeats.

...New towns are being built upon all the new lines of railroad recently opened up through our county.

...The sidewalks are rather thinly populated to-day, as farmers are busy at home, and it is too cold for loafers to sun themselves outside.

...Try some of that splendid washing soap sold by J. Ullrich & Co.

...Brick laying has commenced in good earnest on Fenton's new block, on North Water street.

...Get your tickets of admission to the "Union Spy," at W. R. Abbott's.

...The chilly winds of the past few days indicate a great deal of snow upon the highlands, both east and west. Though many hundred miles away the effect upon the atmosphere is quite perceptible.

...Niedermyer keeps the best brands of family flour, and sells at lowest market rates.

...Mr. A. D. Wysong, of Maroa, has decided to remove to Decatur, as the rapid improvement in that city offers superior advantage to builders of all kinds. Mr. Wysong is a number one bricklayer, and has gone into partnership with one of Decatur's best workmen. We wish him success.—Maroa News.

What the above says of Mr. Wysong as a mechanic is true, and from personal acquaintance with him, we will add he is a number one citizen, and while we sympathize with Maroa people in their loss, we congratulate Decatur upon the addition of so good a man to her population.

...The Susan Denin Combination give the first of three entertainments at the opera house to-morrow night, on which occasion Miss Denin takes the title role in "Elizabeth, Queen of England." In this character she has no superior on the American stage. The popular prices of admission, together with the reputation of Miss Denin, should secure a crowded house.—We understand that her support is first-class

...Elder Adams preached an earnest and impressive sermon last night to a large and attentive audience. He will speak this evening on "The Resurrection of the Dead."

...Decatur can pass from mud to dust about as quick as most places. People have hardly got the mud cleaned off their boots, and yet the dust flies lively to-day.

...We noticed some fellows on the street last evening who were very proper subjects to receive the attention of temperance missionaries.

...Go to Race's and see their new styles of spring cloths, cassimeres and vestings.

Prayer Meeting Evening.—This is the evening for the regular weekly prayer meeting at nearly all the churches. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings. Strangers in the city are particularly invited.

In Good Spirits.—We have seldom seen the farmers of our county in a more cheerful mood than they are at present.—They are selling their stock of old corn at good paying prices, and the prospect for good crops this year is very encouraging. The ground is thoroughly moistened to a good depth, and will be in good condition to receive seed, even if no more rain falls for some weeks. Of course there are the contingencies of flood and drought, but we are inclined to believe that Providence will manage the weather business about right, and that honest labor will reap a good reward in abundant crops.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

B. Z. Taylor, of Blue Mound, is at the Priest.

H. M. Gulzon, of New Orleans, is registered at the St. Nicholas.

Sam Bunn has joined the Good Templars, and is "with us in the crusade."

Thos. C. Birmingham, a well known commercial traveller from Chicago, is stopping at the St. Nicholas.

Hon. John L. Routt, 2d Assistant P. M. General, returned from Bloomington last evening where he has been on a visit, and is stopping at Priest's Hotel.

Dick Smith went to Macon this morning on the accommodation.

Among the arrivals at the St. Nicholas are Messrs. A. W. Cole and J. B. Carson, stock men from Sherman, Texas.

John Dawson is the affable clerk in Hubbard & Swearingen's book store.

F. C. Stratton, of Paris, chief engineer of the Terre Haute, Paris & Decatur railway, was in the city yesterday. He put up at the St. Nicholas.

Mr. Wm. E. Wadams will discharge the responsible duties of prescription clerk in Captain Brown's new drug store. Mr. Wadams is a graduate of the School of Pharmacy at Toronto, Canada, and also at Queen's College, England. He is well qualified for the position.

John Selig, Esq., of Blue Mound, is at Priest's Hotel.

Uncle Billy Young has a huckster stand in central block, on Merchant street. He is doing a prosperous business, but reports butter and eggs scarce.

Rev. Dr. Stevenson returned last night from Pittsfield.

Corson & Sherman are running a first-class green grocery on Prairie street. Mr Sherman was formerly on the police force, and proved one of the most efficient "cops" we ever had

Mr. J. C Fenton leaves to-day for Colorado. He left his order yesterday for the REPUBLICAN to follow him to his new home.

Frank Payne dropped in this morning to renew his subscription to the REPUBLICAN. He has been traveling through Iowa nearly all winter, and looks as though he had enjoyed it.

Capt. Mahannah looks, in his citizen's dress, like a young girl who puts on long skirts for the first time He evidently has not 'got the hang of the duds' yet Courage, Harvey, you will yet be able to feel at home in the garb of ordinary mortals

"The Union Spy."—Among the many excellent entertainments at the Opera House during the winter, no richer treat has been afforded our people than will be enjoyed by those who witness the rendition of "The Union Spy," which is to be played for the first time on Monday evening. We hope our people will turn out en masse, especially as the avails of the entertainment are to be used in the establishment of a reading room for the benefit of the city.

Notice.—The readers of the REPUBLICAN will please notice the new advertisement of S Einstein, who has just returned from the east with a complete stock of spring and summer goods, consisting of all the latest styles of dress goods, notions, gent's furnishing goods. Also, a full line of cloths and cassimeres, for men's and boys' wear. We invite all to call and examine our new goods—we consider it no trouble to show them. Be sure to call at No 21, Water street, and see our prices before going elsewhere S EINSTEIN
March 24—d1w.

Released.—The young girl arrested by Marshal Haworth yesterday for larceny of clothing and a watch from the residence of Mr F. D. Scott, living a few miles southeast of town, upon confession of her crime before Justice Albert was released, on account of her extreme youth. The goods were all secured and restored to the owner. The Justice gave the girl a good moral lecture, which it is hoped she will remember.

Prospering.—The Good Templars' Lodge is in a highly prosperous condition. New members are coming in rapidly, and it is hoped that the young men of the city will take hold of the matter in good earnest and make it a grand success, not only in point of numbers but as a means of do ing good. Meetings are held regularly every Monday evening in the hall over Hildebrandt's drug store.

The Praying Crusade at Clinton.—A private letter from Clinton says. "The praying band of women are at this moment praying in the last saloon in town (the Magill House) This is the first attempt at praying in the saloons. A crowd of men and boys follow to see them."

Up and Down.—East Main street, between Water and the old square, is in a most wretched condition by reason of the earth accumulated upon the cinder pavement during the muddy season. In its present condition it is a disgrace to the city, and we hope for the credit of the town it will be leveled, if nothing more.

A few ladies or gentlemen can be accommodated with first-class board at No. 11, corner of Church and William streets, the house recently kept by Mrs Egbert.

MACON NOMINATIONS.

MACON, ILL., March 23, 1874.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—Pursuant to a call of the Farmers' Club of Macon township, a convention was held at the club room on Saturday last, resulting in the selection of the following gentlemen as candidates for township officers:

For Supervisor—David P. Keller
For Town Clerk—Benj. F Hight.
For Assessor—William Armstrong.
For Collector—Elijah D. Lawley.
Constable—(to fill vacancy), Davis Hays.
Road Commissioner—M. G Warren.

The convention was very well attended, about seventy-five persons being present Everything went off in good style and with apparent satisfaction.

Respectfully, Yours,
BENJ F. HIGHT.

Dissolution.—We call attention to the dissolution notice of Strohm & Dempsey, and also to the notice of the new firm of Strohm & Bullard, as the successors of the first named. These gentlemen will carry on the marble business at the old stand, corner of North Water street and the new square, where they will be pleased to see everybody in need of work in their line

County Court.—County Court, which has been in session over two weeks, adjourned yesterday. Owing to the new law conferring upon it a more comprehensive jurisdiction than formerly, an unusually large amount of business has been transacted. The docket included twenty-six criminal cases and forty-one at common law.

No Deception.—There is no deception in Dr. Price's Special Flavorings and Cream Baking Powder. His bottles of flavorings hold one-half more than others sold for the same size, and every flavor is true to its name, made from select fruits and aromatics and cheaper, as it is only necessary to use a small quantity to obtain each peculiar flavor, natural and delicate. His Celery Flavor is excellent for gravies and meats, his Ginger Flavor for gingerbread, ginger-snaps and anything in which ginger is used, will be found elegant. Try them, Ladies, and we warrant that you will be pleased. d2w1

Capt. I. N. Martin has a full line of fresh vegetables, fresh fish, nice butter and eggs, at his provision stand on South Main street. Lettuce, radishes and other relishes in full supply. He has a lady clerk in attendance, who will bestow prompt and polite attention upon all customers. All goods fresh and of best quality

Ins and Outs.—The ex city officials seem happy in their release from the weighty responsibilities that have rested upon their hands during their term of service, and those just installed in their places seem equally happy in the possession of the honors of office. Our opinion is that the outs have the best of the bargain, and that their joy will be more substantial and abiding than that of the ins

For Rent or for Sale.—A six acre lot and small house within the city limits; a five-acre lot two miles northwest of town; forty-acre pasture lot, two and a half miles northwest of town, also a residence lot between the business part of town and the depot. Enquire of

VEGETABLE SICILIAN
HAIR
RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.
Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye.

FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
